

Summer Reading 2009 :

The library wants to reward you for keeping up on your reading skills over these long, hot summer months by offering some big, cool prizes. All you need to do is fill out a bookcard like so:

 	Title: The Twits by Roald Dahl
Name: Tommy Swift	Favorite character/ why: Muggle-Wump the monkey, because he never gives up trying to save his family from their awful life with the Twits.
Phone number: 555-1234	Best part: When Mr. Twit convinces Mrs. Twit that she's shrinking. He ties her up to a bunch of balloons, cuts the strings, and Mrs. Twit goes floating away.
Grade next year: 5th	Stars: (1=worst; 5=best)
Parent's signature: Gordon Swift

Then either turn them in at the library or at a Summer Reading Program event. As you can see, we don't just want you to read a book; we want to know what you thought about the book as well.

Once completed, your bookcard will be placed into the library's grand drawing. Cross your fingers, because if your name is drawn at the end of the summer, you will win one of our very large, very expensive bundle prizes! So start reading and filling out those cards, because the more cards you enter into the drawing, the better your chances are at winning some really great stuff.

Too young to read? We will most certainly accept cards from children whose parents have read a book to them. Just remember to say thank you after a parent helps you fill out the bookcard.

Summer Reading Bookcards can either be picked up at the Jefferson County Library or downloaded from the link provided below. Good luck and we'll see you at the library.
